This Homepage Recommendation is based on your responses to the NCG Website Homepage Selector and the information you provided about your institution.

It gives you a preview of what your institution's homepage could look and feel like. The recommended colour palette, sections and overall visual style are based on your institution's scale, the amount of photo content available, and your preferred colour style.

The preview is shown on a desktop screen. The recommended design is responsive and will also adapt to mobile screens.

You can use the NCG Website Design Toolkit to customise the content, sections and images to suit your institution's needs.

The image shows the top part of a FAQ section. At the top, the word 'FAQ' is written in a large, bold, black serif font. Below it, a line of text reads 'Explore answers organised for patients, caregivers, students, doctors, and researchers.' Underneath this text are four rounded rectangular buttons. The first button is white with a thin grey border and contains the word 'All'. The second button is a solid dark red color and contains the text 'For Patients'. The third button is white with a thin grey border and contains the text 'For Doctors'. The fourth button is white with a thin grey border and contains the text 'For Donators'. Below the buttons, there are five horizontal lines, each representing a question. The first line is followed by a small red downward-pointing chevron icon. The second line is followed by a small red downward-pointing chevron icon. The third line is followed by a small red downward-pointing chevron icon. The fourth line is followed by a small red downward-pointing chevron icon. The fifth line is followed by a small red downward-pointing chevron icon.
